荷李活道

荷李活道 是香港開埠後首條興建的街道，名稱來源於早年街道兩旁的冬青樹英文名及音譯。早期為華人聚居地，當年的擋土牆現在依然存在。

Hollywood Road was the first street built since Hong Kong was opened for trade. The name comes from the holly wood planted on both sides of the road and the transliteration of its English name. It is an early settlement place of the Chinese, the retaining wall of the past still exists.
